DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 1-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor, at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The specification lacks any mention of subject matter of being able to output audio output sounds into a different ear canal of the headset operator. Claim 1 states that a second ear piece containing an ear phone, which outputs audio output sounds into a different ear canal (i.e., ear canal of first ear piece) of the headset operator. Claim 7 states that the microphone and ear phone located in the ear piece housing. Also, claim 13 states that a method to adapt a second ear piece for inserting into a first ear. There is no teaching in the specification has to the particular operation of the second ear piece. This important information must be disclosed and included in the drawings to allow one of ordinary skill make or use the claimed invention.

Response to Amendment

3. The amendment filed on 9 September 2002 has been applied to the following effect:

- The specification was changed as indicated.
- Claim 12 is cancelled.
- Claims 1-3, 5, 6-7, 10-11, and 13-15 were changed as indicated.
